Ms. Bhuvi Sharma Signature of Committee: 1.  2.  3. 	Department of English The Department of English submitted the teaching plan and maintained attendance and assessment records. Internal assessments and result analysis were carried out, with remedial support provided to weaker students. The department is encouraged to strengthen ICT use and resource access to further improve teaching-learning outcomes. Department of Political science The Department of Political Science prepared and implemented the teaching plan and maintained up-to-date attendance registers. Internal examinations and result analyses were documented, and mentoring and remedial sessions were provided for identified weak learners. The department held extension activities and applied ICT in teaching; area for improvement: minor infrastructure enhancements to support interactive pedagogy. Department of Economics The Department of Economics followed the academic calendar and maintained comprehensive records of classes and internal assessments. Result analysis was used to identify weak learners and targeted remedial measures were taken. The department demonstrated use of ICT and community engagement; library support and additional reference materials are recommended to further strengthen learning outcomes.
1. 2. 3. 4.	Commerce Hindi History Sociology	1. Ms. Margaret Sebastian 2. Dr. Jai Prakash Sharma 3. Mr. Puneet Thakur 4. Ms. Rachna Tanwar Signature of Committee: 1.  2.  3.  4. 	Department of Commerce The Department of Commerce completed the syllabus as per plan and kept accurate attendance and assessment records. Faculty used ICT extensively, arranged industry exposure and student seminars, and documented participation in FDPs and research activities. Mentoring was active and remedial coaching provided where required; continued focus: expand industry linkage opportunities. Department of Hindi The Department of Hindi adhered to the syllabus distribution plan and maintained attendance and assessment documentation. Student-centric activities and language development initiatives were conducted, and ICT was used selectively in instruction. The department preserved high documentation quality; suggested support: more access to digital literature resources. Department of History The Department of History prepared and followed the teaching plan and maintained attendance and assessment records. Result analysis informed remedial classes and the department organised field trips and local heritage collaborations to enhance experiential learning. ICT use is growing; recommended action: strengthen archival and reference material availability.

		Department of Sociology The Department of Sociology maintained audit compliance in teaching plans, attendance, internal assessments, and result analysis despite the faculty post being vacant. Student engagement and mentoring continued, and the Principal took classes to ensure continuity of academic standards. Immediate requirement: recruitment to fill the vacant sociology faculty position to restore full departmental functioning and expand outreach activities.
